INTRODUCTION.

THE Wills and Inventories printed in this volume have been selected from those now preserved in the Probate Registry at Chester, and are mostly of persons of the middle class, instead of, as is too often the case, those of persons of rank and position only. Amongst them will be found the wills of yeomen, husbandmen, chapmen, and clothiers, together with those of several clergymen, one doctor of physic, two freemasons, and various gentry. Out of the fifty-one wills here printed only three are those of persons styled esquires, whilst one is that of a knight, and two others are members of the family of Viscount Kilmorey. They afford insight, therefore, into the life of the middle class during the sixteenth, seventeenth, and eighteenth centuries, and as such will be found to contain much of general as well as local interest. They are mostly full abstracts of the original wills, devoid of all the legal verbiage and repetitions, but retaining every name of person or place, and all expressions which are in any way quaint or curious. Some few of the wills, however, have been printed in full in order to show how the others have been abbreviated.

In an Appendix will be found a number of Lancashire and Cheshire Wills and Inventories proved either at York or Richmond, between the years 1542 and 1650. These are mostly short genealogical abstracts of the originals, and were found by me amongst the late Canon RAINES' Miscellaneous MSS. and papers, which I have recently arranged and calendared for the Chetham Library. They would appear to have been mostly made by the Rev. Canon JAMES RAINE of York, who was in constant communication with the late Canon RAINES, and who probably sent him abstracts of any important Lancashire and Cheshire wills and inventories which he met with in the course of his searches at the Probate Courts of York and Richmond. These wills will be found of much local interest, and will show how often it has happened that wills, which one would expect to have been proved at Chester, have, for some reason or other, been proved at York, and are there preserved. The Lancashire wills are mostly from the North of Lancashire, but a few are from South Lancashire, and some from Cheshire. A few wills relating to Westmoreland have also been printed, as the southern portion of that county formed part of the old diocese of Chester. The total number of the York and Richmond wills of which abstracts are here given is 108.

A number of abstracts of wills proved at York or Richmond, subsequent to the year 1660, have been reserved for a future volume.

THE WILL OF THOMAS BECK OF MANCHESTER,

I N the name of God, Amen, the 23 January 1587[-8] I THOMAS BECKE of Manchester co. Lanc. gent. My body to be buried in Jesus Chappell in the Parish church of Manchester.

¹ Thomas Beck was the son of Robert Beck, of Manchester, who died in 1556. (Manchester Court Leet Records, vol i. p. 32.) He was Boroughreeve of Manchester in 1581-2. For a short notice of him see Manchester Court Leet Records, vol. ii. p. 20.

My debts to be paid first, and the rest of my goods &c. to be divided into three parts, one part to Elizabeth my wife, another part to myself, and the third part to my two younger children, Robert and Eleanor. After my funeral expenses are paid the remainder of my part to my two children Robert and Eleanor Beck. To Margaret Hunt, wife of William Hunt, my barn, a garden &c. for her life. And to the said Robert Beck an annuity of £5 for his life, to be issuing out of my messuages, lands &c. in the counties of Lancaster and Chester, except such lands and tenements as are appointed for the jointure of the said Elizabeth Beck my wife, and except such lands as I am barred by way of covenant by certain indentures made between me the said Thomas Beck on the one part, and Thomas Bunberrie and John Nuthall, gentlemen, on the other part, for the establishing of all my inheritance. Also I bequeath such leases as I have in possession or reversion of my messuage or tenement in Ardwick to my executors to enjoy the same to the use of my daughter Eleanor until they shall have received the sum of £100, which sum to be bestowed on my said daughter for her better preferment in marriage. If she die before the £100 be paid then I will that the same be bestowed for the benefit of my son Robert Beck. And when this sum is received by my executors then I assign the said leases to Ranulph Becke my son and heir apparent and if he die before he come of age, then to Robert Beck my younger son, and if he die then to Eleanor my daughter and her assigns. And as touching my messuages and lands, I will that the same shall descend according to such uses and limitations as are set down in the said indentures made between me and the said Mr. Bunberrie and Mr. Nuthall and I appoint as executors Thomas Bromfort clothier, and Thomas Grymesdicke my brother in law, and my loving friends Adam Byrom gentleman and William Robinson to be my overseers.

Witnesses—John Ingham, John Bootheman, Henry Wilkinson, Nicholas Towne.

¹ The use of this old word “worthing,” meaning manure, is noteworthy. The arms of the old Lancashire family of Worthington bear three “dung-forks,” showing that this word was well known in Lancashire.

² A “knop” was a large tub, and a “mash-knop” would be a large tub used for preparing “mash,” a mixture of malt and bran, for horses and cattle.

³ A “quishin” was an old way of writing “cushion,” but I cannot explain the meaning of the word used in the text.

THE WILL OF ANTHONY MOSLEY¹ OF MAN-CHESTER, CO. LANC., CLOTHIER. 1607.

“ I N the name of God, Amen, the 18th November 1606. I ANTHONIE MOSLEY of Manchester co. Lanc. Clothier. My body to Christian burial within the parish church of Manchester. Alis my wife to occupy and enjoy the third part of all my lands, tenements &c. for her life in recompense of her dower and also to enjoy one other third part of the same during her widowhood, for and towards the maintenance of all my younger children until they shall accomplish the age of 21 years. Oswald Mosley my son and heir apparent shall enjoy the said third part of my said lands &c. after the death or marriage of my said wife towards the bringing up of my said younger children until they are 21. And I bequeath the remaining third part of all my lands &c. and the reversion of the other two parts to the said Oswald Mosley my son and heir apparent and to his heirs male. Remainder to Francis Mosley my second son and his heirs male. Remainder to Edward Mosley my third son and his heirs male.

¹ Anthony Mosley of Manchester, clothier, was the third son of Edward Mosley of Houghend, gent., who died in 1571, and the younger brother of Sir Nicholas Mosley, knt., lord of the manor of Manchester. He was buried at the Collegiate Church, Manchester, on the 27th March, 1607, being about 70 years of age. (See Manchester Court Leet Records, vol. ii. p. 225.)

Remainder to Richard Mosley my fourth son and his heirs male. Remainder to Rowland Mosley my youngest son and his heirs male. Remainder to Oswald Mosley my youngest brother and his heirs male. Remainder to Sr Nicholas Mosley, knt. my eldest brother and his heirs male, with remainder to my right heirs. My debts and funeral charges to be paid, the remainder to be divided into three equall parts, one third part to Alis my wife, and whereas I have delivered to my son Francis Mosley £100 in part of his filial portion and likewise have covenanted with Richard Nugent to give £300 to the said Richard for the preferment of Ellin my daughter in marriage with Walter Nugent son of the said Richard, I will that the said Francis and Ellin shall divide with the rest of my younger children in one other third part of my said goods &c. such sums as they have received being allowed by the said Francis and Ellen. The last third part I reserve to myself for legacies. Each of my seven children's share to be £300 and what is wanting to make up this amount to come out of my share.

“Also it is my will that the right worshipful Sr Edmund Trafford, Sir Nicholas Mosley, Knights, and Richard Holland, Esquire, and all others the worshipful and men of ability of and in Manchester will procure that a sum of £1500 may be had and obtained amongst them for the building of an Almshouse of five bays within the town of Manchester in some convenient place at and by the appointment of the said Sr Edmund Trafford &c. and likewise for the purchasing of lands to belong to the said Almshouse for the maintenance of 40, 50, or 60 persons within the said town or parish born that shall be aged impotent &c., and if the same be done within the space of one year next after my decease, then my will is and I do bequeath the sum of £500 towards the erecting of the said Almshouse and purchase of lands for the maintenance thereof, the said £500 not to be parcel of the £1500 to be collected as aforesaid, but besides the same and also provided the same be effected within the space of one year next after my decease, otherwise it is my will that the said £500 shall be put forth by my executor and overseers at the rate of 8 pounds per hundred from yeare to yeare for 10 years which will amount yearly to 40 pounds taking good security for the same and the said 40 pounds to be bestowed by my executor and overseers as followeth, towards the repairing of the parish part belonging to the parish church of Manchester upon the leads, glass windows, whiteing or plastering of the same, 5 pounds yearly during the said 10 years, to poor schollars going out of the free schooles of Manchester, Middleton, or Ratchdale to either Universitie at the discretion of my executor and overseer the sum of five pounds [yearly] during the said ten years. And towards the repairing of bridges and highways within the town and parish of Manchester and especially near unto the said town, ten pounds yearly during the said 10 years. And towards the relief of the poor within the towns of Manchester and Salford in fuel, money or apparel ten pounds yearly during the same ten years. And to such poor folks as are next of kindred unto me the said Anthony Mosley and Ales my wife five pounds yearly during the same 10 years. And towards the relief of the poor of the township of Ratchdale in money, fuel or apparel yearly during the same ten years five pounds.

“And after the expiration of the said ten years then my will is that my executor shall take into his hands the said sum of 500 pounds which sum I will to be bestowed upon five of my youngest children to wit, Ales, Edward, Richard, Anne and Rowland Mosley equally amongst them at such times as my daughters shall severally come to marriage and as my sons shall accomplish the age of 21 years. And if any of my said five younger children decease before their marriage or coming of age, then I give his or her portion of the said 500 pounds to Oswald Mosley my eldest son, who, my will is shall have the use of the said 500 pounds until the marriage of my said daughters or the coming of age of my said sons, he allowing them each 5 pounds a year. Also I will that 100 pounds shall be bestowed for my funeral in mourning apparel upon my wife, children, and kinsfolk. And I will that out of the said charges, Robert Leigh the elder of Manchester, singing man, and Robert Bowker and William Bowker my walke millers shall every of them have a cloak of 10 or 11 shillings the yard and that Thomas Leeze of Hoolme, Hughe Warrin and Thomas the son of John Shelmerdine shall every of them have a coat of the same price. To every of my servants dwelling with me at the time of my death 40^s each. Also I will that there be a dinner prepared and a dealing to the poor viz 2^d a piece to such as come to my funeral. Also my will is that Mr William Leigh pson of Standish shall make my funeral sermon, and to have xx^s for his pains. All these out of the said 100 pounds. All the rest of my goods and chattels to Oswald Mosley my son and heir and I appoint him sole executor. And I desire my loving nephews Rowland Mosley and Edward Mosley, Esquires, to be overseers.

THE WILL OF ROBERT HESKETH³ OF RUFFORD, ESQ. 1620.⁴

"I^N the name of God Amen September viijth 1620. I ROBERT HESKETH of Rufforth within the Countie of Lanc. Esquire

¹ The Rylands' of Kirkby, in the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, were a respectable family of yeomen, most probably an offshoot of the family, which for many centuries was settled at Westhoughton in the parish of Deane. (See the new edition of Baines' Lancashire, vol. iii. p. 160, where a pedigree of this latter family is given.)

² Rylance is merely a corrupt spelling from the local pronunciation.

³ This Robert Hesketh was the eldest son and heir of Sir Thomas Hesketh of Rufford, knt., and had succeeded his father in the possession of the family estates in 1588. He married (1) Mary, daughter of Sir George Stanley, knt., (2) Blanch, daughter and co-heir of Henry Twiford of Kenwick, co. Salop (relict of William Stopford of Bispham), and (3) Jane, daughter of Thomas Spencer (and relict of . . . Harsnape), who, after his death, married Sir Richard Hoghton of Hoghton, knight and bart. Robert Hesketh, Esq., died 7th Nov., 1620. He had issue by his first wife, and also by his third wife, some of the latter being illegitimate, having been born before marriage.

"IN the name of god Amen The Nyne and twentieth Day of September in the yeare of our Lorde Christ 1620. I WILLIAM MOSYER of Manchester in the Countye of Lancaster Chapman beinge sicke in bodye but of pfect mynd and good ¹ This William Mosier is described in 1614-15 as a "silk-weaver," and in 1619 as a "gentleman," whilst in his will he calls himself a "chapman," or general dealer. It is probable that his brothers mentioned in this will lived in London, and that he had settled in Manchester in order to carry on business there. This is the only Mosier will to be found at Chester down to 1823, showing that the name was not a Lancashire or Cheshire one.

THE WILL OF JOHN CUDWORTH, SENIOR, OF WERNETH, CO. LANC., GENTLEMAN. 1631.

IN the name of God, &c. I JOHN CUDWORTH senior, of Werneth in the parish of Oldham, co. Lanc. gent., 19 May, 1631. To be buried in my chapel in the church of Oldham.
My debts to be paid, the chief being the sum of £100, w^{ch} I owe to my son and heir apparent John Cudworth. The residue of my goods to be divided into three parts whereof I will that Alice my wife shall have one part. The second part to my two sons Ralph Cudworth and Samuel Cudworth (in regard I have no more children unpreferred) and I desire my executor to have the disposition of the portion of my said son Ralph during his life and to find him meat, drink, lodging, &c., fitting to his estate and condition. The third part I reserve to myself to pay the following legacies. To my daughter Elizabeth now wife of Robert Parker 5s. To my daughter Susan now wife of John Soundeforth of Deanshutt, 5s. To the poor of Oldham £10, and towards the furtherance of the school of Oldham £10. The residue of my third part to my grandchildren John Cudworth, Jonas Cudworth,

Richard Cudworth, Anthony Cudworth, Thomas Cudworth, Anna Cudworth, and Francis Cudworth, sons and daughters of my said son and heir John Cudworth equally between them when 21 years of age.

I make my said son and heir John Cudworth, executor, and desire my friends Edmund Ashton and Edmund Hopwood Esq^{rs} to be overseers.

Witnesses—Isaac Allen, Josua Cudworth, Gerard Simkin.

MEMORANDUM—That John Cudworth of Werneth the testator did further declare that whereas certain legacies were given to divers of his children by the last will of Theophilus Asheton late of Clegg Esq. deceased, to be disposed at the discretion of him the said John Cudworth the testator. He the said John Cudworth hath heretofore in his lifetime disposed of the same for the preferment of his children according to the trust reposed in him by the said Theophilus Asheton, &c.

THE WILL OF JOHN SHELMERDINE THE ELDER, OF LOWER ARDWICK, CO. LANC., LINEN
WEAVER. 1632.

IN the name of God, Amen, the 18 Nov., 1631. I JOHN SHELMERDYNE the elder of Lower Ardwick, co. Lanc., Linen weaver. My body to Christian burial. Whereas I hold and enjoy the messuage or dwelling house with the appurtenances, and all the buildings, lands, &c., thereto belonging, situate in Ardwick aforesaid, wherein and whereupon I now inhabit, during the term of 99 years (if Margaret my now wife, John Shelmerdine and Robert Shelmerdine my sons or any of them so long live, under the yearly rent of 4s. 10d. payable and reserved to Thomas Chernocke of Astley, co. Lanc., Esq., and Brigett his now wife, as by one indenture of lease bearing date the 1st July, 16 James [1618] made between the said Thomas Chernocke and Brigett his wife on the one part, and me the said John Shelmerdyne on the other part more fully appears). It is my will and I hereby devise the said premises as follows, that is to say, if Margaret my wife happen to survive me, then she shall have one full third part of the said premises for her own use during so many years of the said term as she shall happen to live and keep herself sole and unmarried, paying one full third part of the rent, &c., reserved. And it is my will that my son John Shelmerdyne and the issue of his body lawfully begotten shall hold and enjoy the residue of the said premises, and also the said third part after the decease, marriage, or miscarriage of my said wife, during the rest of the term aforesaid. And for default of such issue my will is that Robert Shelmerdyne (one other of my sons) and the issue of his body lawfully begotten, shall enjoy the said premises. Provided always that if Marie (now wife of my said son John Shelmerdyne) shall survive her said husband, then she shall enjoy one third part of the said premises during so many years of the said term as she shall happen to live and keep herself sole and unmarried.

It is my will that all my just debts shall be paid by my executrix hereafter named. And after my debts and funeral expenses are paid, the residue of my personal goods shall be divided into three equal parts, whereof I will that my said wife Margaret shall have one part to her own use. And the second part I bequeath to my children John Shelmerdyne, James Shelmerdyne, Robert Shelmerdyne, and Margaret Shelmerdyne equally amongst them. And the third part I reserve to myself and bequeath out of the same to my said daughter Margaret Shelmerdyne £26 13s. 4d. To my said son John Shelmerdyne 30s. and to Marie his wife 10s. To my said son James Shelmerdyne 30s., and to my said son Robert Shelmerdyne £5. To my said sons John Shelmerdine, James Shelmerdine, and Robert Shelmerdine each a pair of looms with the implements thereto belonging. To my said wife Margaret my best cloak. To the poor people 30s. All the residue of my said third part shall be divided into two equal parts, one part whereof I give to my said wife Margaret and to my son Robert Shelmerdine and the other part to my said daughter Margaret Shelmerdine. I constitute and make my said wife Margaret Shelmerdine sole executrix, and I desire my loving friends Samuel Birch and George Grimshaw to be overseers hereof.

THE WILL OF WILLIAM BELL¹ OF MANCHESTER,
CO. LANC., YEOMAN. 1634.

I^N the name of God, Amen, the 1st March, 1633[-4]. I WILLIAM BELL, of Manchester, co. Lanc., yeoman. My body to be buried (if I die in Manchester) in the north side Ile hard by the pew where I doe use to sit, and a fair large stone to cover the grave, and my name to be set upon it. And if I die in Ashton parish then I would be buried near to my sons pew. And if I die in Stockport then I would be buried at the chancel end near to the north corner of it, about six yards from the wall, for there was my father and mother buried. And touching my household goods, &c., it is my will that after my decease they shall be appraised by four honest men, therewith to pay all my debts, funeral expenses, legacies, &c. I give to Elizabeth Berron the wife of Lawrence Berron and to her children £5. To Ellen Mosse the widow of John Mosse £5. To Alice Bowrehowse and her children £5. To Isabel Swan the wife of William Swan, and her children, £5. To Isabel the wife of Robert Redich 40s. To William Rodgers Allis [alias] Sheather £5. To John Rodgers Allis [alias] Sheather 40s. To William Percifall, Marie Percifall, John Percifall, and Anne Percifall, sons and daughters of Anthony Percifall, 20s. apiece, when 21. To my godson William Byrom 10s. To my godson William Worsley 10s. To my sister-in-law Alice Walton, 40s. To Thomas Bell Allis [alias] Smyth £10 and a work day suit of apparel. To John Bell and Elizabeth Bell son and daughter of my brother Robert Bell, deceased, £15 apiece for 3 years next after they shall accomplish their full ages of 21 years. To my cosen John Worsley of Manchester 40s. To M^{rs} Sparke 20s. To the poor of Manchester £5. To the poor of Ashton-under-Lyne parish 40s. Whereas there is a bond in my hands that James Hulton sealed to me for the payment of 40s. for his brother John Hulton, I forgive M^r Hulton that debt and give him 40s. more. There is a bond of John Allen in my hands for payment of 33s., which I forgive him.

Whereas there is a lease of John Smyth of Ashton in my hands for payment of £5 a year for nine years, if the said John Smyth shall truly pay £5 a year for eight of the first years, then it is my will to forgive the last £5 for the 9th year. To my loving wife Maude Bell a pomander set in gold. To my son William Bell a gold ring with death's head upon it. To my daughter in law Anne Bell a gold ring with posie "Continue constant." And if there be any overplus of my goods, I give it to my loving wife. As touching all my lands, &c., I bequeath to my now wife Maude Bell, the moiety of all my lands, &c., in Stockport and Manchester, for her life, and the other moiety to my son William Bell, and if he survive my said wife, then he shall have all my lands, &c., in Stockport and Manchester. And seeing that both my son and his wife are young people, if it should please God to send my said son William a boy or two, then I know that he will give the elder son all his lands at Synderland, which I desire him to do, and for such elder sons preferment, because I would have him brought up in his father's steps, therefore I freely give to him and his heirs for ever, all that land that I bought of Mr Francis Mosley lying in the Milgate in Manchester. And for the younger son, because I would have him brought up first at the Grammar School, therefore I give him and his heirs for ever, all my lands in Stockport, and one dwelling house in St Maries Gate in Manchester, that I bought of John Beswicke, and all that land I bought of Mr Pott lying at the Hyde Cross in Manchester. To Mary Bell daughter of my son William Bell and his heirs for ever, all that land that I bought of Mr Brownesort,¹ lying in the Hanging Ditch in Manchester. To Anne Bell daughter of my son William Bell and her heirs for ever, all that land that I bought of Mr Grantham, lying in the Hanging Ditch, and in the Old Meal Gate in Manchester. If my said son William have only one boy, then I give to him and his heirs for ever, all my lands in Stockport and the said house in St Marie's Gate, and the lands at Hyde Cross to Mary Bell and her heirs for ever. I give to Anne Bell daughter of the said William and her heirs for ever, one dwelling-house that I had of John Beswicke lying in St Marie's Gate. And if the said William have no sons then I give to his daughters and their heirs, all my lands whatsoever equally amongst them. I make my loving son William Bell, sole

THE WILL OF RALPH SHELMERDINE, THE ELDER,
OF GORTON, CO. LANC., YEOMAN. 1639.

IN the name of God, Amen, the 29th May, 1639. I RAPHE SHELMERDYNE, the elder, of Gorton, co. Lanc., yeoman. My body to be buried in Christian manner in the parish church or churchyard of Manchester near to the place where my late loving wife Anne Shelmerdyne lieth interred, or elsewhere where the Lord shall appoint. First my debts and funeral expences shall be paid and discharged out of my whole goods. I devise and bequeath all my messuage, land, and tenement called the Greene Head, with the appurtenances, situate in Gorton aforesaid, to my eldest son Raphe Shelmerdyne, his heirs and assigns for ever. And for default of such issue to Thomas Shelmerdyne my second son and his heirs and assigns for ever. And for default of such issue to my six daughters, Jane Shelmerdyne, Elizabeth, Anne, Margaret, Alice and Marie Shelmerdyne, their heirs and assigns for ever. It is my will that my said son Raphe Shelmerdyne shall in consideration that I do give him my said lands and tenements at the Greene Heade, pay to his sister Jane Shelmerdyne the yearly rent of 40s. during the term of 60 years, if she shall so long live, with power to distrain for the same upon the closes called the Intacke and Pingotte. It is my will that Thomas Shelmerdyne shall in consideration that I have given him all my lands, messuage, and tenement at Banke Topp in Gorton, pay to his sister Jane Shelmerdyne the yearly rent of 20s. during the term of 60 years if she so long live, with power to distrain for the same on the close called the Barley Croft, being parcel of my messuage and tenement at Banke Topp aforesaid.

To my daughter Ann Shelmerdyne £30. To my son in law James Thorpe £10, to be paid within one month after the decease of widow Thorpe of Newton. To three of the youngest children of my son in law James Thorpe 33s. 4d. apiece when 21 years of age. It is my will that my said son Thomas Shelmerdyne shall have the use and benefit of the said three children's legacies to be employed for their best commodity and profit, and that he shall pay the same with the advantage thereof when they attain the said age, and if my said son Thomas shall depart this life before the said sums of money be paid to my said grandchildren the said lands at the Banketopp shall be charged with the payment thereof. Also my said son Thomas Shelmerdyne shall pay to my three daughters Margaret, Alice, and Marie £20 apiece out of my land at Banketopp. Also it is my will that my son in law James Thorpe and Elizabeth his wife my daughter, shall hold them satisfied in regard I have given them sufficient portions formerly. To my said son Thomas Shelmerdyne these parcels of goods hereafter named remaining in my said house at Banke Topp, viz., the greatest coffer, two tables in the house, a cupboard and dishboard, a great swine trough and cheese press, in consideration whereof he shall give to his three sisters Margaret, Alice, and Marie £3 equally amongst them. All the residue of my goods, &c., I give to my said three daughters, Margaret, Alice, and Marie, equally amongst them. I constitute and make my said son Thomas Shelmerdyne sole executor of this my last will. Also I desire my loving neighbours Thomas Jackson, clerk, and Raphe Wood the younger, to be overseers.

THE WILL OF EDMUND BUCKLEY OF GRASCROFT
IN SADDLEWORTH, CO. YORK,¹ YEOMAN. 1640.

IN the name of God, Amen. I EDMUND BUCKLEY of Grascroft in Saddleworth, co. York, yeoman, do this last day of December, 1639, make this my last will. My body to Christian burial. To my eldest son Robert Buckley all my lands in Grascroft and Saddleworth aforesaid (excepting only the new lands I lately purchased of S^r George Booth and M^r William Booth) to enter upon the one half of the same immediately after my death, and the other part after the death of Anne Buckley my wife, to him and his heirs for ever. I bequeath to John Buckley my son the lands above excepted purchased of S^r George Booth and M^r William Booth lying in Quicke and Saddleworth aforesaid to him and his heirs for ever, and for default of such heirs to my son Robert Buckley and his heirs for ever. To my said son John all that my right and term which I now have in one walk mill or fuller's mill with the house and ground thereto belonging. To my son Edmund Buckley all that tenement at Clayton bridge-end in the township of Newton and parish of Manchester late purchased of Edmund Hollins, and now in the tenure of Richard Robinson to him and his heirs for ever. Nevertheless it is my will that before my son Edmund Buckley enter upon the lands above bequeathed he shall pay the sum of £30 to my son John Buckley and £20 to my daughter Anne Buckley. And for default of heirs of my son Edmund Buckley I give the lands at Clayton aforesaid to my son John Buckley and his heirs for ever, with remainder to my son Robert Buckley and his heirs for ever. I will that the sum of £7 be paid out of my whole goods to John Breadbury, and then my goods to be divided into three parts. The first part whereof I give to Anne my wife. The second part to my children John Buckley, Edmund Buckley, and Anne Buckley equally amongst them.

And I dispose of the last third part as follows. First, I will that my funerals, probate of my will, and mortuary be discharged out of the same. To my son Robert my best raiment, dublet, breeches, and stockings and 40s. To my grandchild James Buckley one cow which is at Thomas Whitehead's of Brookebottom. To the rest of the children of my son Robert one ewe or 5s. apiece. To my daughter in law Elizabeth Buckley 5s. To Ellize Knight my cloak and my second raiment and to Margett Knight his daughter one cow which he now keeps. To Jane Knight my daughter 4 sheep or £1. To Anne Linthwit one pyde stirke called Whitetayle and 4 sheep or £1, and that my executors have the government of the same till she come to years of discretion.

Whereas according to my promise I have made the portion of my daughter Alice with the £7 herein bequeathed to John Breadbury, equal with the portion given to my daughter Jane, as a token of my love I give to John Breadbury 1s., and to my daughter Alice 4 sheep or £1, and I will that John Breadbury shall seal an acquittance. I give 40s. to the poor of the town of Saddleworth besides the accustomed doale att forthbringinge.¹ I give 20s. to the poor of Manchester to be divided by the churchwarden of Newton and my overseers. I give one half of the residue of the said last part to my three children John, Edmund, and Anne equally amongst them. And the other half I bequeath to Anne Buckley my wife, Robert Buckley my son, Jane Knight, Alice Breadbury, and Anne Linthwit equally amongst them. It is my mind that one tree at Hobholespringe side be cut down and divided amongst them. I give to my son John the fallen timber towards the building of a barn, and six of the best trees I have. And I would have the rest of the timber

THE WILL OF THEODOSIA BRERETON¹ OF THE PARISH OF ST. BRIDGET, alias BRIDE,
LONDON, WIDOW. 1660.

IN the name of God, Amen, 19 November, 1660. I THEODOSIA BRERETON, of the parish of St^t Bridgett's, alias Brides, London, widow, the relict of Thomas Brereton late of

¹ As shown by her will this lady was the widow of Thomas Brereton of Ashley, in the parish of Bowdon, co. Chester, Esq. She was the daughter of Sir Thomas Tyrrell

Ashley, co. Chester, Esq., deceased. My body to be buried in such decent manner at St Clement's Danes, my quality considered as my executors shall think fit. To the poore of the parish where I shall be buried £20. To my dear and honoured father Sir Thomas Tyrrell, Knt., Serjeant-at-Law, and one of his Ma^{ties} Justices of the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, the sum of £100. To my dear and loving brother Thomas Tyrrell, Esq., £500. To my brother Peter Tyrrell of the Inner Temple, London, Esq. (one of my executors herein after named), so much money as together with the moneys he shall owe me at the time of my decease shall make up the sum of £800. To my loving sister M^{rs} Elizabeth Lane wife of William Lane, of Hansloppe, co. Bucks, Esq., £500. To my loving cousin M^{rs} Dorothy Plumtree £50. £10 towards binding my cozen Frances Ballard's son to be an apprentice. To my servant Anne Scroobie £100. To my servant Jane Lambe £20. To M^r Joseph Birch £5, if he continue to dwell with me till the day of my death. My footboy Robert to be bound apprentice if he desires it. Whereas Raphe Lowndes of Ashley, co. Chester, Gent. (the other of my executors herein after named), and one John Percevall and one Richard Lowndes are and stand bound by three several bonds or obligations by them entered into to my said late husband for payment of three several sums amounting in all to £800, and I being executrix to my late husband am thereby entitled to the said £800. Now I taking notice of the faithful service done by the said Raphe Lowndes to my said late husband for many years, and to me since my said husband's death, bequeath to the said Raphe Lowndes £300, parcel of the said sum of £800, and that he give security for the repayment of the remaining £500.

of Castlethorp, co. Bucks, one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas. Having no issue, all her husband's estate was divided amongst his three sisters, Frances, the wife of Alexander Barlow of Barlow, co. Lanc., Esq., Aune, married Robert Tatton of Withenshaw, co. Chester, Esq., and Catherine, married Ralph Ashton of Kirkby, co. York, Esq., a younger son of Sir Richard Ashton of Middleton, co. Lanc.

And if the lands, &c., lying in Coishley and Werswall or elsewhere in the parish of Marbury, co. Chester, lately purchased by the said Raphe Lowndes from my said late husband, shall happen to be legally recovered against the said Raphe Lowndes or his heirs by any person clayming under Sir Thomas Brereton late of Wolvesacre, co. Flint, Knt., deceased, or under either of his wives or under my said late husband, and that such recovery be within 7 years now next, that then the said Raphe Lowndes his heirs or administrators shall be reimbursed out of my personal estate all such moneys as he or they shall have paid in discharge of the £500 aforesaid. Also I give to M^{rs} Katherine More who sometimes lived with me £30. And whereas by the will of my late husband I am entitled to the moneys due and payable to him by John Covert of Slaugham, co. Sussex, Esq. (who is now as I hear S^r John Covert, Bart.), or otherwise to the manors, lands, &c., assured by the said John Covert for payment of all such said moneys, I convey the same to my executors their heirs, &c., for ever. She also bequeaths to the said executors her lease of the tithes of Ashley. The residue of her estate to her said executors. She appoints her brother Peter Tyrrell and the said Raphe Lowndes executors.

street or place in Manchester aforesaid, commonly called the Myllnegate, now or late in the occupation of John Knott and Raphe Traves. And also one other messuage, burgage, and tenement and one stable, with the appurtenances, in or near a certain street or place in Manchester aforesaid, commonly called the Smithy Door, and now or late in the occupations of Raphe Woollen, and John Rylands, in the names of my brother Mr John Bradshawe, and of my nephew Mr James Bradshawe of Macclesfield, co. Chester, clerk (son and heir apparent of my said brother John Bradshawe), in trust for me, and to be by them conveyed and assured in such manner as I should by my last will in writing appoint. Now I hereby appoint that the said John Bradshawe and James Bradshawe shall within 3 years after my decease (in case my grandson William Radclyffe of Graye's Inn, co. Middlesex, Esq., or his heirs shall first within the said time pay to my executors hereinafter named the full sum of £200) convey and assure the said premises to my said grandson William Radclyffe and his heirs for ever. But in case my said grandson shall fail or neglect to pay the said sum in the said time then the said premises shall be sold to any other person or persons, and the money thereby raised shall be accounted part of my personal estate.

And whereas I have taken several grants and assignments of one messuage, with the appurtenances, in Manchester aforesaid, now or late in the occupation of William Plungeon, and one or more parcels of land at or near the Conduit head in Manchester, for some years to come in the names of my aforesaid brother and nephew, in trust for me. My will is that my said grandson William Radclyffe or his heirs shall hold the same during the residue of the terms, after the payment of such sums of money as I have laid out for the same. And touching the disposal of the sums so to be raised and received as aforesaid, and all other my goods, &c., I declare my will as follows:—All such debts as I shall owe shall be paid, and also my funeral expenses which are not to exceed £80. And my will is that my said grandson

William Radclyffe shall have a mourning cloak, and also such of his brothers and sisters as shall be at my funeral shall have mourning. To my said brother John Bradshaw and to my two executors, mourning cloaks. To my loving friend Mr Heyricke, preacher of God's word at Manchester £5. To my loving friend Mr Newcome, preacher of God's word at Manchester £3, and my desire is that one of them may preach at my funeral. To Mr Stopport 40s. To my said brother John Bradshaw 40s. to buy him a ring. To my said cozen James Bradshawe £10, and to my god-daughter Elizabeth Bradshawe, his daughter, 40s. THE WILL OF PETER RYLANDS¹ OF DAISY HIL-
LOCK, WITHIN WESTHOUGHTON, CO. LANC., YEOMAN. 1662.

"OCT. 27, 1662. I PETER RYLANDS of Westhoughton, within the Parische of Deane, in the County of Lancaster, yeoman, beinge in good and pfect memorie prayed bee the Almighty yet knowing Death to be Certaine and the tyme thereof vn-certaine Doe therefore make this my last will and testament, &c." To be buried in my parish church. To my son Peter,²

² This was the Rev. Peter Rylands, or Rilands, M.A., of Trinity College, Dublin, baptized at Leigh church, co. Lanc., 29 October, 1651. Educated at Winwick Grammar School under Mr. Ralph Gorst, B.A. Entered Trinity College, Dublin, 24 June, 1668, as "Peter Rylands, Pensio. filius Petri Rylands, Gener. Natus annos circiter 17 [apud] Westhoughton, in Comit. Lanc. Educatus sub Magis. Gorse." He became Scholar 1672, graduated B.A. 1674, and proceeded M.A. 1676. On 3 March, 1680-81, he was collated treasurer of Limerick cathedral, being installed 4 April, 1681, and in the same year he became a vicar choral. In 1683 he signed an address to King Charles II. He died in 1695, without issue, having married Diana, daughter of Sir Drury Wray, ninth baronet, of Glentworth, co. Lincoln, sometime a lieutenant in Henry Cromwell's Life Guard. Mrs. Rylands married secondly the Rev. William Twigge, Archdeacon of Limerick, and died in the spring of 1729-30, leaving two daughters Jane and Anne. Jane married, in 1716, the Rev. Stackpole Pery, son of Colonel Edmund Pery of Stackpole Court, co. Clare, and Anne married Colonel Thomas Maunsell of Thorpe Malsor, co. Northants. (See Dalton's "History of the Wrays of Glentworth.") household goods and fixtures, he paying for the same to my three daughters Elizabeth¹ Rylands, Sarah Rylands, and Margret Rilands £30. To Thomas Edge, James Edge, and Elizabeth, sons and daughter of Richard Edge of Midle Hulton, deceased, 20s. And whereas formerly there was lent vnto Ellen Edge the eldest sister of the said Thomas, James, and Elizabeth, "one great studet bible and one oken chest," but she going beyond the sea left the bible and chest in the custody of Alexander Foster of Adlington, tanner, my will is that Elizabeth Edge shall have the said bible and chest and keep the same till her sister Ellen returns into England to live. "And whereas by marridge Articles it may apeare That Robert Makent of Over Hulton and Henery Green of Atherton on the one pte and behalfe of Sarah my wife and mee the testator on the other pte that she debarred her selffe for ever clayminge any other or greater pte of my estate reall or psonall then such as then I made over vnto them the said Robert and Henry for Sarah my s^d wife, &c.," I give her one piece of gold of 22s. To Robert Feilden, my stepson, my watch. Of the rest of my goods to Elizabeth Rylands, Sarah Rylands, and Margret Rylands my daughters, £250. I appoint my friends John Birchall of Ashton, yeoman, and John Guest of Shakerley, husbandman, executors.

An addition in the testator's handwriting and signed by him makes his son in law John Rigbie² of Atherton, an executor.

THE WILL OF ROGER GELIBROND OF BEARD-WORTH, IN BLACKBURN, CO. LANC., YEOMAN.

MAY 29, 1658. I ROGER GELIBROND of Beardworth, in Blackburn, co. Lanc., yeoman. Whereas by a note under the hand of me and Lawrence Haworth my son in law bearing date 4 Dec., 1649, it was agreed between us in the words following. A valuation taken of the quick goods of Roger Gelibrond my father in law by my uncle George Halsted by the approbation and consent of the said Roger Gelibrond and me, the said Lawrence Haworth as follows:—two oxen 13^{li} 6^s 8^d, four oxen 20^{li}, four steers 17^{li}, five stirkes 12^{li} 10^s, three calves 4^{li}, two heifers and a stirke 9^{li} 10^s, eight kine and a bull 36^{li}, two colts and a mare 10^{li}, the said goods were delivered to me, Lawrence Haworth, by the said Roger Gelibrond, together with oats, barley, hay, and all his household stuff and implements of husbandry, together with the rents of all his lands, &c., and shall remain to me the said Lawrence Haworth. Provided always and I, the said Lawrence, hereby promise to answer the value of the said quick goods, &c., to the said Roger, to be disposed of by him at his death, and so as the said Roger and his wife be sufficiently maintained during his life or till such time as either of us mislike. Now, I the said Roger devise the value of the said quick goods, &c., in manner following: I will the same to be divided into three equal parts, one part to Anne my wife, the second to Grace my daughter, and out of the last part I give to my son in law Lawrence Haworth my great gold ring. To Peter Haworth my grandson my silver bowl, my dish tipped with silver, six of the best silver spoons, two great arks, &c., and if he die in his minority I give the same to his mother and her heirs. To my said wife my other gold ring and xj^s piece of gold. To the said Grace a 10^s piece of gold. Whereas I have 40^{li} in gold in my chest, I give the same to Richard Haworth, Thomas Haworth, and Easter [Esther] Haworth my grandchildren equally amongst them. To M^r Clayton our pastor, M^r Harrison, and M^r Briscow, 20^s apiece. To Henry Walmisley my old servant 10^s and my second suit of apparel. The rest of my apparel to be disposed as my wife and son [in law] shall think fit. To my servants v^s apiece. I give my silver buttons at my doublet to my brother Halsted. I give my brown cloak to my brother Walmisley. The residue of my goods, &c., to the said Grace my daughter. I appoint Ann my wife and Lawrence Haworth my son in law, executors.

THE WILL OF JOHN CROSSE OF OVER DARWEN,
CO. LANC., GENT. 1665.

I JOHN CROSSE of Over Darwen, co. Lanc., gent., do by this my last will bearing date 20 Feb., 1664[-5], appoint and declare that Thomas ffish, Richard Dewhurst, and Ralph Ellison, and their heirs, shall stand seised of the lands and tenements hereinafter mentioned, viz., all that part of housing and lands which was formerly granted by John Crosse and Richard Crosse, my grandfather and father, to Thomas Haworth, Thomas Fish, and James Livesay, feoffees in trust, for the use of Isabel his then wife and now wife of Evan Halliwell, for her life. Also that the said persons so trusted shall dispose of the profits of that portion of housing and lands which were formerly granted to the said Isabel as far as they will extend towards the satisfaction of the yearly sum of £16 to the said Evan Halliwell during the life of the said Isabel instead of her dower, and also the yearly sum of £5 6s. 8d. to Mary Crosse, widow, during her life, being a rent charge out of part of the remainder of the said lands. Also that the said persons shall stand seised of the remainder of the said lands and premises and the profits thereof, viz., that they shall dispose so much thereof as will satisfy the said Evan Halliwell and Mary Crosse in case the other portions will not amount thereto. And that the remainder of the profits shall be divided into three equal parts, one part whereof I give to Margaret my wife, during her life, or a third part of the housing and lands, at her choice, and the other two parts towards the maintenance and education of all my children living at my decease, or my wife in child withall.

As for my temporal estate, my will is that the sum of £100 shall be first paid thereout towards the payment of my debts, and the rest of my goods, &c., to be divided into three equal parts, one part to myself, another to Margaret my wife, and the other amongst all my children. And my own part to be equally divided amongst all my children. And my said trustees shall after the decease of the said Isabel and Mary Crosse, or either of them, stand seised of all the premises granted to the said Isabel, till such time as all my younger children shall have received out of the same premises £20 apiece. And after the ceasing of the aforesaid charges and the dower of the said Margaret, they shall stand seised of all the aforesaid premises to the use of William Crosse my son and his heirs male for ever. Remainder to Thomas Crosse another of my sons and his heirs male for ever. Remainder to John Crosse another of my sons and his heirs male for ever. Remainder to my heirs male by Margaret my wife or by any other wife. Remainder to my right heirs for ever. My said son William Crosse shall have power to grant the moiety of the said premises for the dower of such wife as he shall lawfully espouse, and to charge the other moiety of the said premises with £200 for his daughters in case he shall die without issue male ; and my said son Thomas Crosse shall have like power. I nominate and appoint Margaret my wife sole executrix.

I further appoint that the tenement in Over Darwen which remains unsold beside those which I sold and granted to Mr Warren shall stand chargeable with the payment of £90 towards the discharge of the remaining part of my debts, in case my said son William Crosse do not pay so much of my debts.

JOHN CROSSE.

THE WILL OF EDWARD SHACKLOCK^{*} OF MOSTON
HALL, PARISH OF MANCHESTER, CO. LANC.,
GENT. 1666.

IN the name of God, Amen. I EDWARD SHACKLOCK of Moston Hall, in the parish of Manchester, co. Lanc., Gent. Whereas I have mortgaged the capital messuage or mansion house called Moston Hall, and the demesne lands thereto belonging, with several other messuages, lands, &c., in Moston and Faylsworth to Edward Cheetham of Smedley, gent., and James his son, by indenture duly executed, wherein (amongst other covenants) it is agreed that the said Edward Cheetham shall pay to Margaret my wife the sum of £500. It is my will that the said sum shall be paid to my said wife or her assigns according to the true intent of the said indenture. And whereas the said Edward Cheetham hath agreed to pay another sum of money to me or to such persons as by my last will I should appoint to receive the same, I hereby devise the said last mentioned sum and all my lands and tenements called Ryley and Harkenstead Yate, and all other my messuages, lands, &c., in Ryton and Ouldham, which I lately purchased from Henry Wrigley, Esq., and John Rodes, to my executors hereafter named to the intent that they shall sell the same, and employ the money thereby raised and all my personal estate for the satisfaction of my debts and funeral expences. And after the same are paid I give the sum of £250 to Margaret my wife, to the intent that with the interest thereof she shall maintain my sister Mary during her life, and after my said sister's death, my said wife shall have the said sum to her own use, upon condition that she release her dower to all my lands, &c.

^{*} This Edward Shacklock was the only surviving son and heir of John Shacklock of Moston Hall, gent., who died in 1663. He was baptized at the Collegiate church, Manchester, on the 26th November, 1626, and died without issue in 1666. His wife was Margaret, daughter of Richard Entwistle of Foxholes, co. Lanc., Esq. He was the last male representative of the Shacklock family and parted with his estate to Edward and James Chetham of Smedley, gentlemen.

To my brother in law John Davie, clerk, Vicar of Frodsham, co. Chester, and to my sister Elizabeth his wife, £10 apiece to buy mourning, and to Mary Davie their daughter £100. To my aunt Sarah Harteley, widow, £20, and to my cozen John Harteley, his eldest son, £100, if he take upon him the office of executor of this my will, but if he refuse then I give him £50 only, and to the other children of my said aunt Sarah, viz., Jeremiah Hartley, William Hartley, and Elizabeth Roman wife of Edward Roman, £10 apiece. To my aunt Martha wife of Thomas Marshall, glasier and citizen of London, £10, and to her children, Edward, John, and Anna, £5 apiece. To John Entwisle of Ormeschurch, co. Lanc., Esq., £50, if he take upon him the office of executor hereof. Whereas I am interested in one messuage and tenement in Ouldham, of the inheritance of Edmund Ashton of Chatterton, Esq., formerly in the tenure of one James Rodes, I bequeath the same and all my interest therein to John Rodes the younger son of the before named John Rodes of Ryley aforesaid, to the intent that he shall maintain his brothers and sisters out of the profits thereof. Provided that if the said John Rodes shall alien all or any part thereof, then the same shall remain to his brother Abel Rodes upon the trust aforesaid. Also if my lands and tenements called Ryley and Harkinstead Yate shall be sold for more than £650, the surplusage shall be paid amongst John Rodes the elder of Ryley aforesaid, and his children, allowing the said John Rodes the younger a double portion.

Whereas I have purchased a messuage and tenement called Bradshawes tenement in Faylesworth, my will is that the said Edward Chetham, after payment of the sum of £100 to my said executors, shall have the same to him and his heirs, and if the said Edward Chetham shall fail to pay the said sum, I give the said premises to my executors for the payment of my debts, &c. To my cozen Joshua Cudworth of Wernith, the remainder of what is owing to me upon sale of a bull to him, and to his children 20s. apiece. All the residue of my goods, &c., I give to the said John Entwisle and John Hartley, whom I hereby nominate and appoint executors of this my will.

THE WILL OF JOHN LEADBEATER^{*} OF THE HERMITAGE, CO. CHESTER, GENT. 1667.

IN the name of God, Amen, the 11th Nov., 1667. I JOHN LEADBEATER of Hermitage, co. Chester, gent. My body to the earth. As touching my estate, I give the same to my loving wife, children, and friends, and for the due payment of my debts. First I appoint that out of my goods, &c., my niece Mary Bann may have her £100 paid her, Joane Cowlar of Eaton to have paid unto her also the £40 and the interest thereof which I owe her, also the £120 which I owe my niece Margrett Partington, and also the £6 and interest which I owe unto Dorothie Russell. Whereas I have been at great expense of my son Thomas Leadbeater's education, and since [then] by his marriage with Patience his wife, and have settled on them my capital mesuage called the hall of Hermitage, by which I have impaired my younger children's portions, and so by this my will cannot be so free unto him as otherwise I could desire, yet it is my will that in case he will pay to my daughter Margrett Leadbeater for her life, the yearly sum of £6 13s. 4d. by equal payments, that then my said son Thomas Leadbeater shall have to him and his heirs for ever, all my tithes of corn and grain that shall ^{*} John Leadbeater of the Hermitage, in the township of Holmes Chapel, in the parish of Sandbach, co. Chester, was the eldest son and heir of John Leadbeater, yeoman. He purchased the Hermitage about 1650, and lived there till his death in December, 1667. His eldest son was Thomas Leadbeater, clerk, of Christ's College, Cambridge, B.A. 1651, M.A. 1656. become payable out of the fields, closes, lands, &c., belonging to the hall of Eardshawe in the parish of Sandbach, co. Chester, and also all the tithes of corn and grain which I have, unsold, within the township of Cranage in the said county, together with Starkie's Eye tithes, and the tithes payable for Roger Tasker's tenement. And in case my said son do not consent to assure unto my said daughter the said annuity, then I give all the said tithes to my said daughter Margrett and her heirs for ever, and desire my said son Thomas and my son John Leadbeater¹ to convey the said tithes to my said daughter and her heirs, which said tithes are of the value of £80. Also I give unto my said son Thomas Leadbeater all the tables, benches, bedsteads, &c., in those parts of the buildings now in his possession, with the long tables and form in my hall place, my wife having the use of the said tables in the hall during her life, in full of my said son Thomas Leadbeater's portion.

It is my will that my said son John Leadbeater shall have to him and his heirs for ever that my parcel of ground lying in Cranage aforesaid, with the £5 thereupon reserved in the lease by me formerly made, upon condition that my said son John Leadbeater do within one year after my decease pay unto my two daughters Mary Leadbeater and Martha Leadbeater the sum of £60 equally betwixt them, and in case my said son John do not pay the said £60 as aforesaid, then I give the said parcel of meadow ground called Roades Eye with the £5 rent reserved upon the lease thereof, to my said two daughters Mary and Martha Leadbeater, and their heirs for ever. Also I give to my said son John Leadbeater, all my goods in and about the Milne house (my corn and straw excepted) with my best cloak, stuff suit, and tawny garters(?) in full of his portion, having already sufficiently preferred him. I give to my son Peter Leadbeater and Elenor his wife £5 in full of his portion, having been at great charges for the obtaining of his trade and payment of his extravagances, beside the £60 I gave him upon his marriage. I give to my son Mathew Leadbeater £5 in full of his portion, having been at great charges upon his education. I give to my daughter Ann Harefynch £5 in full of her portion, having already provided for her upon her marriage with Richard Harefynch her husband. I give unto my daughter Elizabeth Beard all such sums of money which ought to be paid unto me by my brother in law Henry Hartshorne or by William Hartshorne his son, in full of her portion, and I give unto my son William Beard my gloves with gold fringes. I give to my brother Samuel Leadbeater my grey cloth suit with silver buttons, if he please to accept thereof. I leave the rest of my apparel to the disposal of my wife (except my gray gown and black silk garters, which I give to my son Thomas), and my best purse and silver seal which I give to John Leadbeater his son. I give unto my sister Elizabeth Smyth 40s. To my sister Mary Street 20s. besides the 20s. she oweth me.

I give all the tithes of corn and grain arising from the fields, closes, &c., belonging to the three messuages in Church-hulme belonging to Richard Pearpoynt, Joane Bunn, and Elizabeth Stanley (Nightingall's field only excepted), to the use of such persons as shall successively be minister at Church-hulme[†] aforesaid for ever, in full satisfaction of £5 which I have belonging to the minister of Church-hulme.[†] All the residue of my tithes in Church-hulme aforesaid I give to my two daughters Mary Leadbeater and Martha Leadbeater and their heirs equally betwixt them for ever. Provided, that if my said son John Leadbeater desire my said tithes in Church-hulme, and do thereupon pay to my said two daughters Mary and Martha, within 3 years after my decease £180, then I give the said residue of my said tithes to my said son John and his heirs for ever. Provided that out of the profits of the said tithes in Church-hulme, or out of the said £180 such sums of money may be raised and paid towards the payment of my debts, legacies, &c., as my goods, &c., fall short to pay. Item, all the rest of my goods, &c., after my debts, legacies, and funeral expenses are discharged, I give to my loving wife Ann Leadbeater and my two daughters Mary Leadbeater and Martha Leadbeater equally amongst them. I ordain and make my said wife and my said two daughters Mary and Martha executrixes of this my last will, and I entreat my two sons Thomas and John Leadbeater, and my two sons in law William Beard and Richard Harefynch to see this my last will performed. I give unto Mary ffarmer, daughter of Mary fforster of the Hollins, the last of the three years' rent which I have in the Hollins ground at Candlemas next.

THE WILL OF JOHN HARTLEY¹ OF STRANGE-
WAYS, CO. LANC., ESQ. 1669.²

I N the name of God, Amen, 1 May, 1655. I JOHN HARTLEY of Strangeways, co. Lanc., Esq., make this my last will in manner following. My body to Christian burial within my chapel in the parish church of Manchester. All my debts and funeral expences to be paid out of my whole goods. All the residue of my goods, &c., shall be divided into two equal parts, whereof I will that my daughter Elline Hartley shall have one equal part in lieu of her filial portion, and the other part I reserve to myself and dispose thereof as follows. To Alice my now wife £100, besides the sum of £500 which before my marriage with the said Alice I agreed to leave her in case she survived me, provided that the said Alice do not at any time after my decease demand jointure out of any my messuages, lands, &c., other than what I have or shall grant to her, and shall not demand any of my goods, &c., other than the said £500 and her own wearing jewels, rings, and convenient furniture

¹ This John Hartley, Esq., was the second son, and ultimately heir, of Nicholas Hartley of Manchester, woollen draper, who died in 1609. He was twice married. By his first wife Alice, daughter of John Bradshaw of Bradshaw, co. Lanc., Esq., who died in 1631, he had an only daughter and heiress, Ellen Hartley, who was married on the 17th April, 1650, to John Hartley, the son of Ralph Hartley, citizen of London. By his second wife, also named Alice, who survived him and was buried at Manchester on the 23rd May, 1658, he had three children, who all died young. THE WILL OF THEOPHILUS HOWORTH¹ OF HOWORTH, CO. LANC., DOCTOR IN PHYSIC. 1671.

IN the name of God, Amen. I THEOPHILUS HOWORTH of Howorth, co. Lanc., Doctor in Physic. It is my will that my funeral expences, and the sum of £10 which I give to the poor within the town of Manchester to be distributed amongst the most needy, shall be first paid out of my personal estate. And whereas I have by one indenture dated 24 March, 1670[-1], made between me the said Theophilus Howorth on the one part, and Henry Ashhurst of London the elder, Esquire, Thomas Minshull of Manchester the younger, and Joseph Duerden of Rachdale on the other part, whereby I have given full power to the said Henry Ashhurst, &c., to pay such annuities and sums of money as shall be payable out of the rents, &c., of all my messuages, lands, &c., in Howorth, Rachdale, Hundersfield, Butterworth, or elsewhere in the parish of Rachdale, and out of all that my messuage and tenement of the manor of Steed, and out of all my messuages, lands, &c., elsewhere in the county of Lancaster aforesaid, and also charged all the said lands with an yearly annuity and competent portion for the maintenance of my only daughter Elizabeth Howorth, to be paid her in manner therein declared, which said annuity and portion I hereby ratify and confirm. Now it is my will that all the residue of my goods, &c., be disposed of in manner following. I give to Mary Howorth my wife the third part of my household goods for her use during her life, and after her decease the said goods to descend to my only son and heir apparent Henry Howorth.

¹ Theophilus Howorth was the fourth son of Edmund Howorth of Howorth, co. Lanc., and was born about the year 1614. He became "a doctor of physic," and settled in Manchester, where he had a large practise. He married Mary, daughter of Henry Ashhurst of Ashhurst, co. Lanc., Esq., and the widow of Andrew Stone, late of Bretherton, gentleman, by whom he had two children, Henry and Elizabeth. He died on the 9th April, and was buried at the Collegiate church, Manchester, on the 12 April, 1671, aged 57. He was fond of genealogical and heraldic enquiries, and corresponded with Dugdale and others. Some of his MS. collections are amongst Canon Raines' miscellaneous deeds in the Chetham Library, Manchester.

And in regard I have charged my lands to pay so much of my debts as part of my personal estate may not extend unto, I therefore bequeath to my said son Henry Howorth, all my books and so much of all my goods, &c., as he the said Henry Howorth shall please to take for his own use. And all the rest of my said personal estate as arrears of rents due out of Howorth, Rachdale, Hundersfield, and Butterworth, as also all those arrears of rent unpaid from the manor of Steed (which said arrears of rent from Steed are secured by a statute acknowledged at Wigan the 29 March, 1671), and all other my goods, &c., shall be disposed of towards paying my debts. And I give to my said wife Mary Howorth (in case I die before Whitsunday next) £20, and it is my will that she shall receive the third part of the profits of all my lands until the 25th March, 1674, and then to receive the third part of the yearly profits of the said lands or such a yearly sum of money as is mentioned in the said indenture or deed of trust, to be in full satisfaction of her jointure or dower. It is my will that the legacy left to my daughter Elizabeth Howorth by her aunt Hartley be duly given to her, and I further give my said daughter the little bay mare. I give to Henry Ashhurst, Thomas Mynshull, and Joseph Duerden aforesaid, 20^s each to buy mourning rings, and I empower them to borrow money to satisfy my creditors, if they shall call for the money due to them, with security out of the lands at Howorth and Clegge. And as concerning all my messuages, lands, &c., in Howorth, Clegge, Hundersfield, Rachdale, or elsewhere in the county of Lancaster, I confirm the same to my only son and heir apparent Henry Howorth according as I have already settled the same, and my said son shall receive a competent yearly annuity for his maintenance at Lincoln's Inn or elsewhere, until he shall be 21 years of age. I constitute and make Mary Howorth my wife and my son Henry Howorth sole executors of this my will.

THE WILL OF WILLIAM BELL¹ OF HUYTON, CO.
LANC., CLERK. 1684.

IN the name of God, Amen, the 9 Feb., 1683[-4]. I WILLIAM BELL of Huyton, co. Lanc., clerk. My body to the earth from whence it was framed. Whereas I the said William Bell being seised of and in the capital messuage and tenement with all the appurtenances situate in Ashton-under-Line, co. Lanc., commonly called by the name of Sinderland, did by indenture of lease and release, the release bearing date the 20 Augst, 35 Chas. II. [1683], and made between me on the one part, and John Heywood of Taunton, within the parish of Ashton-under-Line aforesaid, gent., John Brownsword of Aughton, in the said county, clerk, and Tabitha Bell of Huyton aforesaid, spinster, on the other part, grant, bargain, and confirm, all the said capital messuage, &c., to the said John Heywood, &c., to the use of me the said William Bell during my life, and after my decease to such uses as I should by any my deed or last will in writing appoint. Now I the said William Bell do hereby appoint that the said John Heywood, &c., shall immediately after my decease sell the said premises, and shall employ the purchase money for the payment of my debts and funeral expences, and then shall thereout pay to my eldest son Peter Bell £100. And I give the said Peter Bell all my ministry notes, whether bound up or loose papers, and all my wearing apparel as gowns, cassocks, cloaks, and others, in full of his filial portion of my real and personal estate, after the many hundred pounds which I have paid for him, being much more than would by right have belonged to him.

¹ This William Bell was the only son and heir of Mr. William Bell of Manchester and Ashton-under-Lyne, whose will has already been printed in this volume (see pp. 48-51). He was married at Oldham in 1629 to his first wife Ann Walker, and about 1660 to his second wife Anne, daughter of Robert Hyde of Denton, co. Lanc., Esq. He had issue by both wives. He was a Master of Arts, but his name does not occur amongst the Oxford or Cambridge graduates. He was appointed to the vicarage of Huyton near Liverpool in 1642, but resigned it in 1662 on account of his non-conformity. For some years he lived at Sunderland in Ashton-under-Lyne parish, where he had an estate, but ultimately returned to Huyton and died there the 10th March, 1683-4, in the 80th year of his age. He was buried in the church there, where an inscription to his memory is still preserved. He published several books, all now of much rarity. (See Manchester Court Leet Records, vol. vi. pp. 233-4, note.)

To my son Timothy Bell £10 in full of his filial portion. To my daughter Lydia Bell £10 for perfecting her education either at Manchester or Chester. To my three younger children Tabitha Bell, Lydia Bell, and Samuel Bell, all my lands and tenements in the parish of Oldham, co. Lanc., and in Stockport, co. Chester, to hold to them their heirs and assigns for ever, equally amongst them, but not to include Stockport lands which I have already conveyed to my daughter Elizabeth, wife of the said John Brownsword. To my said daughter Elizabeth Brownsworth the virginalls that were her mother's and also my silver can in full of her filial portion. To my daughter Tabitha all my silver spoons. To my daughter Lydia my gold ring. To my son Samuel my watch. All the residue of my real and personal estate to my executrix to the uses following, viz., £200 to such uses as I have already declared to my daughters Tabitha and Lidia, £3 to be added to the stock for the poor of Huyton, and the residue I devise equally amongst my said three youngest children Tibitha, Lidia, and Samuel, and nominate the said Tabitha Bell executrix.

THE WILL OF PETER LEIGH OF NETHER KNUTSFORD,
CO. CHESTER, CLERK. 1694.

THE 27 May, 1693. I PETER LEIGH of Nether Knotsford, co. Chester, clerk. Touching the two fields or parcels of land in Meire, co. Chester, called the Rough Fields, I bequeath the same to Mary Leigh my daughter for and during the life of Mary Leigh my now wife and for 7 years after the death of the said Mary my wife, and afterwards then to Moses Leigh my son and his heirs, and in default of such heirs then to the said Mary Leigh and to her heirs, and in default of such then to my right heirs. And whereas by deed of settlement bearing date 28 August, 24 Charles II. [1672], I reserved to myself power to charge my capital messuage and tenement in Northwood in High Leigh, with any sum of money for portions for my younger children not exceeding £300. Now I do by this my last will charge the said capital messuage with the full sum of £300 to be raised after the death of my said wife Mary, and the same to be paid to the said Mary Leigh my daughter in part of her portion out of my personal estate, my debts and funeral expenses first being discharged. I give £10 to the said Moses Leigh my son, and the residue to be divided between the said Mary Leigh my wife and Mary Leigh my daughter, and I appoint the said Mary Leigh my daughter and my kinsman John Robinson my executors.

THE WILL OF SIR JOHN BYRON, KNT., OF ROCH-DALE, CO. LANC., AND NEWSTEAD, CO.
NOTTINGHAM. 1567.

Testamentum Johannis Byron, militis, parochiæ de Collwike, co. Nottingham.

IN nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Saincti, Amen. To all true Christien and faithfull people to whome this presente wrytinge shall come, I SIR JOHN BYRRON of Newsted in the countie of Nottingham, knyght, sendethe greatinge in our Lord God everlastinge. Know ye that I the said Sir John Byrran calling to my remembrance that all mortall creatures living in this world (the vaile of myserie and wretchednes) bene subjecte to deathe common and most certayne to all creatures, and that the tyme and maner therof is moste uncertayne and unknowne to all and everye the said creatures (of which nomber I am one) and willing before th'execucion and stroke of deathe to sett all my worldlie matters in some honeste and quiet staye and order to th'intent that when yt shall please Almyghtie god to call me frome hence I maye then withe a quyete mynd prepare and make my self redie to that heavenlie journey. Therfore I the same Sir John Byrran, being now holle of mynd and perfite remembrance, thanks be to Almyghtie God, 17 August, 1558. Fyrste and before althings I most humblie comend and bequithe my soull to Almyghtie God, the Blessid Maker and gracious Redemer of the same, praying and from the bottome of my harte devoutlie beseichinge his almyghtie goodnes to have mercye upon the same, and withe a penytent and an humble harte do crye out, call upon and saye, O Lord God have mercye upon me, have mercye upon me, after thie great mercye, and for thie most precious blood saike forgyve me all my offences and synnes whiche I have committed against the[c], whether yt be in thought word or deide all together forgyve me, ne regard not, ne loke upon, O Lord God, what my synnes have deserved, but rather what becomethe thye bottomeles and infinite mercye, nor enter into judgement withe me thie wretched servaunt, nor keipe in memorie myne iniquities, but mercyfullye turne thye face from my synnes, and putte awaye all myne offences, receyving me into thyne hollie proteccion and garde: and so shall I be sure and saif and come to thye heavenlie and joyefull kingdome, to the whiche thou haiste redemed and bought me withe thie precious blood, and for myne eyde and helpe in this my prayer and request I humblie and devoutlie praye and beseiche our Blessed Ladie Saincte Marie the Virgine and all the hollie and blessid companie of heaven to praye for me; and because faithe is foundation of all salvacion whiche now of laite hath sore decaid, therfore I thinke yt good to open and declare my faithe that others owte of the right faithe maye (yf yt please god) returne by my confession into the same agayne. Fyrst I beleve in God the Father, God the Sonne, and God the Hollie Ghoste, thre persons and one God, I beleve that our Saviour Jesu Christ, the seconde person in Trinitie, descended from heven and toke our humane nature and fleshe upon hym within the wombe of the Blessid Virgine Marie, and heare was borne of the same Blessid Virgine, and was conversaunte in this world, and at the last suffering most paynfull passion and deathe upon the crosse for our redemcion, descended into hell and rose agayne from deathe the third day for our Justificacion.

Item I beleve withe my harte and confesse withe my mouthe that in the blessid sacrament of the alter instituted and ordayned by Christe for our consolacion and comforthe after the wordes of consecracion, viz., Hoc est corpus meum spoken by the prieste at masse over the breade, that then furthwith the verie nature and substance of bread by th'omnipotent and invisible power of God is altered, chaunged, turned, and transsubstantiate into the verie bodie of Christ, the forme of bread remanyng and yet no bread ther, nor none other substance ther, but onlie the substance of Christ, God and man, and that the receyte of the same moste Blessed and Hollie Sacrament by the ley people in the one kynd, viz., under the forme of breade according to the ordynnance of Christes hollie church is sufficient without receyvinge the same in bothe kindes.

Item I beleve in all th'other blessid sacramentes of Christes church, and that the masse is a pewre and cleane sacrifice pleasinge God, and a sacrifice propitiatorie for the quicke and dead. I beleve that I shall arryse from deathe at the generall resurreccion and in this same my fleshe shall see my Redemer and saviour Jesu Christ, at the whiche tyme I humblie beseiche hym to sett me on his right hand emongest the number of them that shalbe saved. And fynallie I fymelie and stedfastlie beleve in all and every th'articles abovesaid, and in all and everye other poynte and article of our faithe, as the hollie Catholique and knownen church dothe beleave and command us the children and members of the same to beleve owte of the whiche church ther is no salvacion. And I utterlie deteste and abhorre the Manaches, Th'arrians, Th'annabaptists and the Sacramentaries, and all other heretiks withe there damnable sectes and opinions, prayng and beseiching Almyghtie God to revocate and call home agayne all them that have severid and devidid themselves from the said Catholique church by ther misbeleve that once agayne planted in the same they may through the meritts of Christes passion be maid inheritors of heaven.

Item I will that my bodie be buried in Collwicke church wheresoever I shall happen to die. To the prisoners in the Common gaole at Nottingham xl^s, at York, Lincoln, and Lancaster, 20^s each. I will that an honeste preiste be hyred to synge or saye masse for my soull, &c., within the parishe church of Collwike for 10 years, with 10^{li} for his yearlie stipend, but if the said stipend by any lawe or lawes heartofore maid and hereafter to be revived be maid to cease, it to go to the poore and nedie people, amendinge and reparinge of highe wayes and briggs or other charitable deides. To John Byron, my base sonne, all my manors, lands, leases, &c., whatsoever, he to be sole executor. My verye speciall and trustie cosyns and frendes Sir Jervase Clifton, Sir George Perpoynte, Sir John Atherton, knightes, Edmund Ashton of Chattertonne, and Edward Holland, Esquiers, to be his coadjutors — each to have 10^{li}. The right Honorable and my singuler good Lord, th'erle of Rutland and my brother Sir Nicholas Strelley, knight, supervisors — he to have 20^{li}, and my brother 10^{li}, desiringe my said verie good lorde to vouchesaife to take paynes for me herin to accepte that small legacie given and bequithed unto hym in good parte althoughe yt be to[o] baise for his honor.

¹ There are many very curious words in this inventory, which I cannot explain. The spelling is very curious.

² "Hinger" (? hanger) probably a kind of short sword.

³ A "capcase" was a small travelling case or bandbox.

⁴ Probably carpet cloth.

⁵ "Tixhill" is given by Halliwell as meaning a needle.

⁶ A "wimble" was an augur.

⁷ "Loker" is given by Halliwell as a Lincolnshire word meaning a carpenter's plane.

⁸ That is, a "spokeshave," or narrow plane used by carpenters.

⁹ Query bittle or bittler, a wooden hammer for beating clothes.

¹⁰ "Suck" is a Lancashire and Cheshire word for a ploughshare. The old word in general use was "sock."

² An "almery" was a cupboard.

³ That is, "piggins," small wooden vessels.

⁴ A "knop" was a large tub.

⁵ A "strike" was a bushel.

⁶ "Careware" is given by Halliwell in his Archaic Dictionary as a North-county word meaning a cart. I think a kind of low sledge is meant here.

⁷ "Crocks" were crooked timbers bent to form an arch, used in many old cottages, houses, &c., in Lancashire and Cheshire.

⁸ Dried white fish.

⁹ A silver or gold heart.

I forgive John Ince, the father, who hath served me since Christmas, 1597, and [was] brought up as a boye in my sister Englefeild's house at Englefeild, and his now wife [who] hath served my said sister as her waiting gentlewoman sundry yeares past, £10 he owes me, lent to him towards the storing of a farme he then had in Ashamstead, co. Berks, and I forgive him £60 which I did lend to him about tenn yeares past towards the buying of a copyhold in Mortimer, being the landes of the Lord Marques of Winchester, at which time I did give him other £60. To my servant Hughe Stanley who hath served as my horsman since new years tyde, 1599, £20, and such of my wearing apparell as mine executors shall thincke fittest for his wedding. To my sister Mistris Margaret Englefeild, widow, the clowdy lowpe saffer which I used to kepe as medicinable for eyes, and now being in hir custody, and the hanginges of my two late chambers at Holleshotte now as they are or as I left them at the time I went thence to live at Gawesworth, and the use of my hanginges of tapestree, chaires, stooles, and virginalles in the dyninge chamber at Holleshotte for her life, so long as she shall continue her dwelling there, and after her decease I bequeath the same to my nephew Francis Englefeild, Esquier, her son, together with all the coffers and chistes of mine in those chambers towards the storinge and furnishing of his house, he now being yet but a younge housekeper, and all such armor of mine as is now at Holleshotte, viz., one horseman's armor with a placket and furniture, and one new corslett blacke with his furniture and sleeves of maile.

I forgive to my sister in law Mistris Anne Welles, late wife to my brother Thomas Fitton, deceased, she being his sole executrix, £120, due to me by my said brother ever since the death of the right honorable Henry Earle of Northumberland, who deceased in 1585, about which debt I have often written to my said brother, and he alwaies in his lief time confessed and acknowledged the same. I forgive to my brother George Fitton sundry sommes of money he owes me amounting to £125 13s. 4d., which was lent to him in ready money out of my purse long since, and also £200 which I did lend to him in Lent, 1600, and was paid out to his use for his debts by the handes of Mr. Hughe Basse and Mr. Jeffrey Place of London, scriveners, for the freeyng and compounding of his debtes whereby he might quietly execute and possesse his office as Secondary of the Counter in the Poll-tree [the Poultry] in London.

To my nece the Lady Anne Newdegate, eldest daughter of Sir Edward Fitton, knight, my late nephew, deceased, in token of my love to her my new and best mawdlen cupp of silver plaine white with his cover, which is now in my lodging at London, and my litle case of white plate being plaine and of silver wherein is couched and conteyned only foure small cuppes called shelles, a sallte and a peper boxe beinge the cover to the same cuppes or shells, and sixe foulding spoones with joyntes, all being couched within the same cuppes or shells and case, and the same enclosed in a litle round case of leather used by me commonly in my travaile for easie cariage, and is fitting and necessary to stand upon the cupbord in hir bed-chamber, and also my bedd of downe, &c., in my bed-chamber at London, with a canopy of yallowe velvet and curtaines of yellow double taffaty and a yellow silke quilte, now in the house of Mr. Thomas Phillips, chandlor, nere the Savoy in the Strond. To my cosin Edmund Fyton, sonne and heire to my late nephew William Fitton, £20, and £10 in money which I did lend to him at his going into Spaine with Sir Richard Leveson in consideracon of a sett of violles de la gamba of his late fathers, and also a sett of Recorders and a great gyterne,¹ a lute and a paire of virginalles which were all his said late fathers, and by him left in my keeping, which said sett of vialles I did lend to Sir John Davers, knight, deceased, and were sithence in the handes of Dame Elizabeth Davers his late widow, and since then also in the handes of Sir Charles Davers, knight, hir sonne attained, by whose fall the said vialles may fortune to be lost, but the virginalles and lute are ready for him and also the said great githerne¹ in my owne now lodging in the Strond, the Red Cocke nere the Savoy. I forgive my kinsman now Sir William Slingsby, knight, £10 which I lent him long since. To Mistris Elizabeth Luce now wief to my servant John Luce the father, towards the better furnishing of hir house in Mortemer three paire of good ordinary household sheetes, &c. To my servant William Bosson one of my hackney geldinges, not my best, for that I meane my best gelding to an other good freind of mine, not as a reward to the said Bosson but as a token and remembrance of my good will to him for that I have formerly done well for him.

I forgive Dame Alice Fyton, the widow of my nephew Sir Edward Fitton, knight, deceased, £17 which she borrowed of me at London in winter 1597, hir said husband being in the cuntry. To my kinsman Edward Fyton, sonne to my nephew Richard Fitton who deceased in Ireland, which said Edward doth now attend upon the right honorable Sir George Carewe, knight, Lord Carewe of Claxton, now vice-chamberlane to the Quene's Majestie, £60, for that I credibly understand he servethe his lord and master diligently, and carieth himselfe honestly and gentlemanly towards all men and himselfe in the good opinion of all men that do know him. To Richard Fitton, brother to the said Edward, £40 for the like consideracions and respect of his good and honest cariage in all places, and in the time he served my nephew Sir Edward Fitton, knight, deceased, and at all times before and since. To my brother George Fitton, before named, £40, and if anie seme to marvaile that I do give to him, being my brother, no more but this somme, I wishe it may be knowne that this somme is not the only benefitte in moneys that I have donne for him, as I know himselfe will confesse. I forgive to Henry Hearshe, an old servante of mine dwelling in Bathe, and heretofore served my honorable lady and wief Katherine, Countesse of Northumberland, deceased, as a groome of hir chamber, £10 as I did lend to him upon his bond sealed by himselfe and his father in law, old Perman of the Citty of Bathe. To my cosin Richard Fitton, younger brother to my cosin and nephew Edward Fyton of Gawesworth, Esquier, and sonne to Sir Richard Fyton, knight, last deceased, my interest in the New Barne in Gawesworth, &c., that I had by demise from Sir Edward Fitton his late father, and if he will give it up to his now eldest brother Edward Fitton, Esquier, I do give him my lease of Hartridge farme in com. Berke.

To my nephew Mr. William Pollewheele, who married with my nece Mistris Marie Fitton,¹ younger daughter to Sir Edward

Fitton, knight, deceased, my nephew before in these named, my usuall riding sword being damasked, commonly called a fauchin, and my best horse or gelding of mine, to his owne best liking, as a remembrance and token of my love to him; and to his now wief, I bequeath as a remembrance of my love my sugar boxe of silver plaine white and round, and my silver grater, both which I use to carry with me when I travaille. My lease of the tiethes of corne and haie within the mannor of Bosley, of the demise of Sir Urian Leighe, knight, and in divers towneshippes, &c., in the parrishe of Presbury, which is the inheritance of John Henshawe, gent., together with the tiethes of woll and lambe in Bosley, to my nephew Edward Fitton of Gawesworth, Esquier, with remainder to Edward his eldest sonne, and remainder to the heire to my brother Sir Edward Fitton, knight, deceased, late Treasurer of Ireland, and grandfather of my said nephew, now Edward Fitton of Gawesworthe, Esquier. To my said nephew, for his lief, I give the use of my whole leather case of gilded plate, viz., a bason and yewer, foure drincking cuppes like unto lowe goblettes, sixe spoones, sixe trencher plates, two sawcers, two forkes and a salte, and a wache or horaloge gilded and enamiled—to be as an heireloome to the heires of the Fittons of the house of Gawesworth.

To my said cosin and nephew Edward Fitton, Esquier, I give my jewell of diamondes and gold like unto a starre, which I do usually weare in my hatte—to remaine as an heireloome, and all that litle store of plate which I have and usually is lyinge at my lodginge at London, viz., two silver dishes, two silver trencher plates, sixe spoones, one large colledge jugge or pott with his cover, one silver canne or tankerd with ribbes and covered, one tunn cupp, one trencher salte, one old slender maudline cupp with his cover, being in the study at Gawesworth and not at London. And I give him a summe of money of [blank] for and in respect of my love to him as heire to the Fittons of the house of Gawsworth, in which I and manie of my auncestors were borne, and for his better help to be the better able to stocke and store his demesnes, and thereby also to be the better able to live in the like countenance as his auncestors have donne there before him.

To the poore of the parish of Gawsworth and Siddington, Maxfield, and Congleton, £20, and my body to be buried in the paryishe church of Gawsworth and a faire large stone of alabaster to be laid upon my grave with an inscription graved in brass,¹ mentioninge, viz., "Here lieth Francis Fitton, Esquier, which married Katherine, Countesse douger of Northumberland, and third brother to Sir Edward Fitton of Gawsworth, knight, deceased, lord President of Connagh and Treasurer of Ireland." I ordaine my two said kinsmen Edward Fitton and Frauncis Englefeild, Esquiers, both my dere freindes and nere kinsmen in blood to be my executors, and Francis Moore of the Midle Temple, London, Esquier, and councellor at law, mine auncient acquaintance and alwaies my dere freind to be my overseer, and in regard of the paines and trouble they may have, I give to my said nephew Francis Englefeild a bason and yewer of silver to the value of £30, with mine armes graved upon the same, with the difference perteyning to a third brother, and the same to be provided with his owne privy and allowance touching the fashion of that bason and yewer, and a like pece of plate to Francis Moore. The residue I bequeath to my nephew Edward Fitton of Gawsworth, Esquier, having manie children, for the better encrease of his present estate, he being my next heire in blood and the heire and lord of the house of Gawsworth, where my selfe and manie of my ancestors were borne, lived, and continued many yeares and descentes.

[Proved at York, 1608.]

¹ Probably for "dubler" or "doubler," a large dish, plate, or bowl, an old word in use in the North of England.

² These curious words I have not been able to meet with in any dictionary of old words.

³ A "catmalison" was also an old word in use in the North of England, meaning a "cupboard near chimneys, where dried beef and provisions are kept."—Halliwell's Archaic Dictionary.

⁴ Query, a "trestle," or support.
